As Chatterjee says, even I never saw a Missionary of Charity worker anywhere in Calcutta in 4 years and certainly they were never to be even heard of during disasters. Never saw them do any social work. The first responders were always Ramakrishna Mission and Bharat Sevashram Sangh and the RSS. But, as they have no backing from the Vatican, no one knows of them!6 of 7 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy J. LohneVery interesting and readable. Your view of the once "living saint" may change after reading this.4 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy SandithSuperb work.

Does Mother Teresa deserve her reputation as the most charitable person who ever lived? This book makes for a gripping but disconcerting read. "Brilliant, heroic, devastating" - Dr. William Radice, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London "Necessary, well-documented" - The Times Higher Education Supplement, London "Painstakingly recorded, (exposes) the other side of Teresa" - Irish Independent, Dublin "Very serious and deserves wide dissemination . . . Truly shocking" - The Irish Times, Dublin "Explosive" - The Asian Age "Written with painstaking care" - The Telegraph, Kolkata "Dr. Chatterjee tackles the inaccuracies, misconceptions, and the elaborate propaganda machine enacted to portrait the albanian nun as relevant humanitarian . . ." - Hemley Gonzalez, founder of Responsible Charity Corps "Mother teresa at some point in her career lost connection with reality and ballooned out of all proportion, serving the cause of the ecclesiastical politics of the vatican rather than the cause of suffering humanity. Dr. Aroup Chatterjee does an excellent job in separating the reality from the layers of myth-making" - Dr. Ketaki Kushari Dyson, writer, translator, and researcher
